THE WOOD FOLD ART AMBASSADORS

ARTIST OF THE MONTH

CLAUDE MONET

1840-1926

Claude Monet was a French artist and one of the leaders of Impressionism. He painted outdoors and tried to capture a quick impression of light, colour and weather.

The Japanese Footbridge

1899

The Artist's Garden at Vétheuil

1880

Woman with a Parasol

1875

HOW TO SPOT MONET'S ART

- Visible, quick brushstrokes
- Light, reflections and changing weather
- Gardens, water, flowers and landscapes
- The same view painted at different times

FUN FACTS

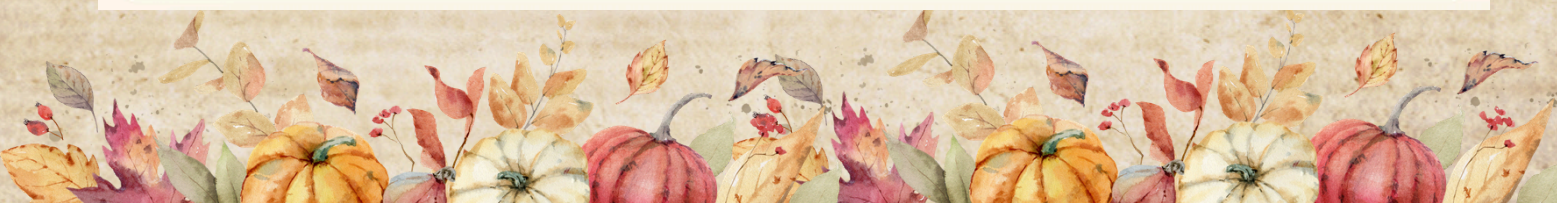

- The name Impressionism came from Monet's painting Impression, Sunrise.
- He created a beautiful garden at Giverny and painted its water lilies many times.
- He sometimes painted several canvases at once as the light changed!

LOOK CLOSELY
