Pupil News

This week in school we've all been celebrating the Wedding of the Year, the marriage of two of our lovely Reception children. It was a beautiful morning at the St John's Church, with lots of singing, dancing and cake at the reception afterwards. A real celebration.

Rehearsals for the Christmas Nativity are well underway, the stage is up and the costumes have been fitted, it is all very exciting.

The school Choir have started practicing for their Christmas performance at Wykeham Place. Carols galore....Joy to the World!

Play house

Mr Jackson is going to put together a play house for our playground at the front.

It is a two-person job however and if anyone can spare 1-2 hours to help him put it together it would be much appreciated.

Please pop in and see us or email office@sjsmacc.cheshire.sch.uk if you are able to help.
