

Intent

At Kingsley, our intent is to provide every child with a rich and engaging music education that nurtures creativity, self-expression, and cultural understanding. We aim to develop musical skills progressively through singing, playing instruments, listening, and composing. Music at Kingsley is inclusive and accessible, helping children build confidence and enjoy collaborative experiences. Our curriculum encourages pupils to explore music from different periods and traditions, to sing and use their voices creatively, and to understand how music is structured and communicated through elements such as pitch, dynamics, and tempo.

Implementation

At Kingsley, we follow the original Charanga Music Scheme to deliver a structured and progressive program from EYFS to Year 6. Each unit combines listening and appraising, musical activities such as singing and playing instruments, and opportunities for performance. Weekly sessions are tailored to age groups: EYFS and KS1 enjoy shorter sessions focusing on singing and rhythm games, while KS2 lessons include instrumental work, notation, and composition. Skills build year-on-year, starting with sound exploration in EYFS, developing pitch and rhythm in KS1, and introducing harmony and structured composition in KS2. Resources include the Charanga online platform, classroom instruments like percussion and glockenspiels, and technology for digital composition.
