Understanding the world: People, Culture and Communities
Understanding the world involves guiding children to make sense of their physical world and their community. The frequency and range of children's personal experiences increases their knowledge and sense of the world around them – from visiting parks, libraries and museums to meeting important members of society such as police officers, nurses and firefighters. In addition, listening to a broad selection of stories, non-fiction, rhymes and poems will foster their understanding of our culturally, socially, technologically and ecologically diverse world. As well as building important knowledge, this extends their familiarity with words that support understanding across domains. Enriching and widening children's vocabulary will support later reading comprehension.

Manchester, Salford, Stockport, Tameside and Trafford (MSSTT) Agreed Syllabus for Religious Education 2022–2027 : KS1

The principal aim of RE is to engage pupils in systematic enquiry into significant human questions which religion and worldviews address, so that they can develop the understanding and skills needed to appreciate and appraise varied responses to these questions, as well as develop responses of their own.

Know about and understand a range of religions and worldviews:

Recall and name different beliefs and practices, including festivals, worship, rituals and ways of life, in order to find out about the meanings behind them.

Retell and suggest meanings to some religious and moral stories, exploring and discussing sacred writings and sources of wisdom and recognising the traditions from which they come.

Recognise some different symbols and actions which express a community's way of life, appreciating some similarities between communities.

Express ideas and insights about the nature, significance and impact of religions and worldviews:

Ask and respond to questions about what individuals and communities do, and why, so that pupils can identify what difference belonging to a community might make.

Observe and recount different ways of expressing identity and belonging, responding sensitively for themselves.

Notice and respond sensitively to some similarities between different religions and worldviews.

Gain and deploy the skills needed to engage seriously with religions and worldviews:

Explore questions about belonging, meaning and truth so that they can express their own ideas and opinions in response using words, music, art or poetry.

Manchester, Salford, Stockport, Tameside and Trafford (MSSTT) Agreed Syllabus for Religious Education 2022–2027: KS2

The principal aim of RE is to engage pupils in systematic enquiry into significant human questions which religion and worldviews address, so that they can develop the understanding and skills needed to appreciate and appraise varied responses to these questions, as well as develop responses of their own.

Know about and understand a range of religions and worldviews:

Describe and make connections between different features of the religions and worldviews they study, discovering more about celebrations, worship, pilgrimages and the rituals which mark important points in life, in order to reflect on their significance.

Describe and understand links between stories and other aspects of the communities they are investigating, responding thoughtfully to a range of sources of wisdom and to beliefs and teachings that arise from them in different communities.

Explore and describe a range of beliefs, symbols and actions so that they can understand different ways of life and ways of expressing meaning.

Express ideas and insights about the nature, significance and impact of religions and worldviews:

Explore some of the ways in which religions name and describe the attributes of God, with a particular focus on how Christians think of God as Trinity – Father, Son and Holy Spirit; the 99 Names of Allah; and Hindu beliefs about the Trimurti – Brahma (creator), Vishnu (preserver), Shiva (destroyer). Lesson 2: Study art (Christians), calligraphy (Muslims) and/or murtis (Hindus) used to represent ideas about God to find out what they say about God. Lesson 3: Explore how ideas about God are shown in stories/narratives: e.g. encounters which help believers to understand God's relationship with people e.g. Moses and the Burning Bush (Exodus 3:1–15). Lesson 4: Explore how ideas about God are shown in stories/narratives: e.g. Hindu texts which describe the indescribable (e.g. extract some of the more concrete metaphors from Bhagavad Gita 7:8–9 and 10:21–41; [www.asitis.com/7/]). Lesson 5: Explore stories which help Muslims understand the nature of God e.g. the story of the Night of Power – the revelation of the Qur'an to Muhammad, and the story of Muhammad's night journey and ascension. Lesson 6: Examine similarities and differences between varied ideas about God. Enquiry: Lesson 7: Why are there so many ideas about God? Lesson 8: Individual response to the Big Question.

Autumn B – Why is the Bible important for Christians today?	7 weeks Knowledge giving: Lesson 1: Talk about sources of guidance and wisdom in their own and others' lives: who or what helps them to decide how to live? Introduce the Bible as a guide for Christians. Give pupils a brief introduction to the Christian Bible – Old and New Testaments, divided into books, chapters and verses; different types of writing (illustrate with two examples e.g. histories; laws; poems; prayers; biographies (Gospels); letters) (be clear that what Christians call the 'Old Testament' is Jewish scripture too). Lesson 2: Creation: Read Genesis 1 (use a lively children's version). Ask pupils to create dance/movement actions for each day, or artworks to reflect the narrative; focus on what the narrative shows God is like – powerful, creative, good etc. Lesson 3: Find out what good and bad things people sometimes do. Explore the idea of temptation: what things are tempting? Tell the story of Adam and Eve giving in to temptation (Genesis 3 – often called 'the Fall'). What lessons do pupils think Christians might learn from this story? Lesson 4: Explore creatively the Lost Coin, Sheep and Son stories (Luke 15), building on prior learning, and how Christians interpret them as showing how much God wants 'sinners' to turn back to him; ask some Christians what they mean when they say Jesus saves or rescues them. Lesson 5: Look at examples of how some Christians use the Bible – for everyday prayer and Bible reading (often using notes), in Bible study groups; read aloud in church, with people talking about the meaning. What are the good things, and the difficult things Christians might find from trying to follow this book in day-to-day life? Enquiry: Lesson 6: Why do believers need a sacred text? Lesson 7: Individual response to the Big Question.
Spring A – What does it mean to be a Christian in Britain today?	6 weeks Knowledge giving: Lesson 1: Find out about how Christians show their faith within their families. What objects might you find in a Christian's home and why? E.g. Bible, cross/crucifix, palm cross, pictures of Jesus or the holy family (Mary, Joseph and Jesus), Christian magazines, CDs of Christian music, some Bible verses on the fridge. What kinds of things would Christian families do during the week? E.g. grace before meals, family prayers and Bible reading, private prayer and Bible reading, giving money to charity. Talk about which objects and actions are most important and why. What similarities and differences are there with the family values and home rituals of pupils in the class? Lesson 2: Explore what Christians do to show their faith within their church communities. What do they do together and why? Explore church noticeboards or websites to find out what goes on in at least two different kinds of churches (e.g. Anglican, Baptist, Roman Catholic, Pentecostal), and some of the similarities and differences between what Christians do there. E.g. Sunday school classes, 'Messy Church', Girls Brigade, Boys' Brigade, Sunday services, different types of worship music, home groups. Ask some teenagers from two churches about how they show their faith. Lesson 3: Find out about some ways in which Christians make a difference in the worldwide community. How do they show that they are Christians? E.g. Mother Teresa, Pope Francis, Archbishop Justin Welby, Loretta Minghella (Director of Christian Aid). See if there are local Christians who are involved in fighting for justice etc. Lesson 4: Talk about how Christians practise their faith in many ways. For some, believing is central, for others it is more about participation in Christian fellowship, and for others it may be about making the world a fairer place – or a combination of all three. What would pupils say makes someone a Christian and why? Enquiry: Lesson 5: How do some people show their faith? Lesson 6: Individual response to the Big Question.

Spring B – How do family life and festivals show what matters to Jewish people?

6 weeks

Knowledge giving:

Lesson 1: Use creative ways to explore stories behind Jewish festivals: their meaning and significance; how adherents express meanings through symbols, sounds, actions, stories and rituals: Pesach/Passover: explore the epic story of the Exodus through text, art, film and drama, exploring the relationship between the people and God; find out how this story is remembered at Pesach and celebrated in Jewish homes (e.g. preparation and the seder meal). Reflect on the important themes of Pesach (e.g. freedom, faithfulness of God; the Jewish people's place as God's Chosen or Favoured People – rescued from slavery to demonstrate this; brought into the Promised Land) and what Pesach means to Jews today.

Lesson 2: Learn that after their escape from Egypt, the Jewish people were given the Ten Commandments. Consider the importance of the commandments to the Jewish people at the time, and why they are still important to Jews (and Christians) today.

Lesson 3: Find out about (or recall from Unit L2.9) some prayers and blessings that Jewish people say through the day (e.g. the Talmud teaches that Jews should say thank you 100 times a day; the Siddur prayer book contains numerous 'baruch atah Adonai' prayers - 'Blessed are you, King of the universe'). What are the benefits of expressing gratitude regularly?

Lesson 4: Compare and consider the value of family rituals in pupils' own lives; make connections with the way Jewish family life and festivals encourage a reflective approach to life and living; talk about whether there are good opportunities for reflection, remembering past times and looking forward in school life as well.

Lesson 5: Should there be rules for how to live your life?

Summer A and Summer B – How do people from religious and non-religious festivals celebrate key festivals?

13 weeks

Knowledge giving:

Lesson 1: Be a Religious Studies (RS) investigator: provide pupils with inference grids with pictures showing some Christmas celebration practices, religious and secular. Ask questions about what pupils can see, what they guess is happening, and questions they would like to ask.

Lesson 2: Be a Religious Studies investigator: choose a series of Christmas practices to explore, at least one celebrated at church and one from home e.g. nativity service, Christingle service, decorating the house, carol singing. Find out information about how, why and by whom these are done.

Lesson 3: Plan one of these activities e.g. a nativity service, explaining why certain parts of the celebration happen, who might join in or not join in.

Lesson 4: Be a Sociology investigator: look at information about how many people in the UK celebrate Christmas and how they say they celebrate. What is interesting or surprising? Create a questionnaire as a class to find out how people celebrate Christmas and what is important to them about Christmas. Ask a variety of people from different religious and non-religious worldviews. Analyse the results. Can pupils see any patterns? Do lots of people give similar information in their response? Are all the responses different?

Lesson 5: Compare answers gathered on the celebration of Christmas using the two disciplines. How were they different or similar? RS can help us to look at evidence to find out how Christians celebrate at Christmas; we don't answer questions about Christmas from the point of view of a Christian when we look through an RS lens. In Sociology we can look at data (e.g. on how Christmas is celebrated in the UK) from large groups of people, or small groups or individuals.

Lesson 6: Be a Religious Studies investigator: choose a series of Chanukah practices to explore, at least one celebrated at the synagogue and how that is celebrated by religious and secular Jews and Jewish people from different communities.

Lesson 7: Plan one of these activities e.g. lighting the hannukiah, explaining why certain parts of the celebration happen, who might join in or not join in.

Lesson 8: Be a Sociology investigator: look at information about how many people in the UK celebrate Chanukah and how they say they celebrate. What is interesting or surprising? Create a questionnaire as a class to find out how people celebrate Chanukah and what is important to them about Chanukah. Ask a variety of people from different religious and non-religious worldviews. Analyse the results. Can pupils see any patterns? Do lots of people give similar information in their response? Are all the responses different?

Lesson 9: Compare answers gathered on the celebration of Chanukah using the two disciplines. How were they different or similar? RS can help us to look at evidence to find out how Jewish people celebrate at Chanukah; we don't answer questions about Chanukah from the point of view of a Jewish person when we look through an RS lens. In Sociology we can look at data (e.g. on how Chanukah is celebrated in the UK) from large groups of people, or small groups or individuals.

Lesson 10: Explore the benefits of celebration to religious communities by asking some local believers: why do they keep on celebrating ancient events?

Enquiry:

Lesson 11: Can the real meaning of a festival be preserved, or do the shops and shopping always take over? Is there a 'real' meaning of a festival?

Lesson 12: Should people from a different world view be allowed to join in with a festival?

Lesson 13: Individual response to the Big Question.

Manchester, Salford, Stockport, Tameside and Trafford (MSSTT) Agreed Syllabus for Religious Education 2022–2027: KS2

The principal aim of RE is to engage pupils in systematic enquiry into significant human questions which religion and worldviews address, so that they can develop the understanding and skills needed to appreciate and appraise varied responses to these questions, as well as develop responses of their own.

Know about and understand a range of religions and worldviews:

Describe and make connections between different features of the religions and worldviews they study, discovering more about celebrations, worship, pilgrimages and the rituals which mark important points in life, in order to reflect on their significance.

Describe and understand links between stories and other aspects of the communities they are investigating, responding thoughtfully to a range of sources of wisdom and to beliefs and teachings that arise from them in different communities.

Explore and describe a range of beliefs, symbols and actions so that they can understand different ways of life and ways of expressing meaning.

Express ideas and insights about the nature, significance and impact of religions and worldviews:

Observe and understand varied examples of religions and worldviews so that they can explain, with reasons, their meanings and significance to individuals and communities.

Understand the challenges of commitment to a community of faith or belief, suggesting why belonging to a community may be valuable, both in the diverse communities being studied and in their own lives.

Observe and consider different dimensions of religion, so that they can explore and show understanding of similarities and differences within and between different religions and worldviews

Gain and deploy the skills needed to engage seriously with religions and worldviews:

Discuss and present thoughtfully their own and others' views on challenging questions about belonging, meaning, purpose and truth, applying ideas of their own in different forms including eg reasoning, music, art and poetry.

Consider and apply ideas about ways in which diverse communities can live together for the wellbeing of all, responding thoughtfully to ideas about community, values and respect.

Discuss and apply their own and others' ideas about ethical questions, including ideas about what is right and wrong and what is just and fair, and express their own ideas clearly in response.

Sequence of learning

Autumn A – Why is Jesus inspiring to some people?	8 weeks Knowledge giving: Lesson 1: Briefly explore what makes a person inspirational to others, identifying characteristics of a good role model. Recall stories of Jesus that pupils have learnt in previous units. Make some connections as you explore creatively some words and actions of Jesus which continue to inspire Christians today; hot-seat characters, freeze-frame or act out stories; create artworks. Lesson 2: Use the events of Holy Week and Easter to find out why Jesus is so important to Christians today; build on prior learning from Unit 1.6 and explore how the events of Holy Week are celebrated by Christians, e.g. Palm Sunday, waving palms; Maundy Thursday, washing feet; sorrow of Good Friday services; darkness in churches on Saturday; light and joy of Easter Day. (Note that celebrations vary between different Christian groups.) Lesson 3: Explore the question: why do Christians call Good Friday ‘good’? Include the terms incarnation (Jesus as God as a human being) and salvation (Christians believe that Jesus’ death and resurrection open up a way for people to be forgiven and get close to God) (see Unit L2.2 for more on these terms). Lesson 4: Find out about the impact that believing in Jesus can have on a Christian’s life and how Jesus has inspired some examples of contemporary inspirational Christians, e.g. how Christians show gratitude to Jesus for saving them and dealing with sin and death and bringing forgiveness – by prayer, worship, giving generously, telling other people about Jesus, caring for others. Lesson 5: Introduce the belief that Christians cannot be completely good and so they rely on the Holy Spirit to help them follow Jesus and be more like him (see the ‘fruit of the Spirit, Galatians 5:22–23). Lesson 6: Follow this up with examples of what some Christians say are the most important attitudes and values to have, as inspired by Jesus’ teachings and actions (e.g. love, fairness, service, sacrifice, joy) comparing these with what pupils believe to be most important. Enquiry: Lesson 7: What would you sacrifice for the good of others? Lesson 8: Individual response to the Big Question.

Autumn B – Why are festivals important to religious communities?	7 weeks Knowledge giving: Lesson 1: Think about times in their own lives when pupils remember and celebrate significant events/people, and why and how they do this. Lesson 2: Consider the meanings of the stories behind key religious festivals, e.g Christmas in Christianity, Pesach in Judaism and Eid in Islam. For each of the festivals explored, describe how believers express the meaning of religious festivals through symbols, sounds, actions, story and rituals. Lesson 3: Notice and think about similarities and differences between the way festival are celebrated e.g. Christmas or Holy Week within different Christian traditions; between home and places of worship. Lesson 4: Consider questions about the deep meaning of the festivals: Is love stronger than death (Easter)? Can God free people from slavery (Pesach)? Does fasting make you a better person? How? (Ramadan and Eid-ul-Fitr; Lent). Lesson 5: Study key elements of festival: shared values, story, beliefs, hopes and commitments. Explore the benefits of celebration to religious communities by asking some local believers: why do they keep on celebrating ancient events? Enquiry: Lesson 6: How should people express their faith? Lesson 7: Individual response to the Big Question.
Spring A and Spring B – Why do some people think that life is a journey?	12 weeks Knowledge giving: Lesson 1: Explore and use the religious metaphor of life as a journey. What are the significant milestones on this journey? What other metaphors could be used for life? Lesson 2: Consider the value and meaning of ceremonies which mark milestones in life, particularly those associated with growing up and taking responsibility within a faith community: in Christianity, confirmation and ‘believers’ baptism’ or adult baptism, first communion and confession (Roman Catholic); sacred thread ceremony in Hinduism. Lesson 3: Consider the value and meaning of ceremonies which mark milestones in life, particularly those associated with growing up and taking responsibility within a faith community: bar/bat mitzvah/chayil in Judaism. Explore the symbols and rituals used, and the promises made. How do non-religious people mark these moments? Find out about Humanist naming days. Lesson 4: What meaning do these ceremonies have to the individual, their family and their communities? Lesson 5: List, sort and order some different commitments held by believers in different religions – and by the pupils themselves e.g. to pray every day, to read holy texts, to try to be good, to exercise regularly, to look after others, to treat the earth well, to follow God, to use words wisely, to practise kindness and generosity, etc.); comment on what difference they might make to someone’s personal worldview. Lesson 6: Think about the symbolism, meaning and value of ceremonies that mark the commitment of a loving relationship between two people: compare marriage ceremonies and commitments in two religious traditions. What promises are made? Why are they important? Compare with non-religious ceremonies. Lesson 7: Explore some basic ideas about what Christians, Hindus and Jewish people believe about life after death; how do they mark the end of life? Lesson 8: Work with the metaphor of life as a journey: what might be the signposts, guidebooks, stopping points or traffic jams? Does religious or spiritual teaching help believers to move on in life’s journey? Lesson 9: Create a ‘map of life’ for a Hindu, Jewish or Christian person, showing what these religions offer to guide people through life’s journey. Can anyone learn from another person’s ‘map of life’? Is a religion like a ‘map of life’? Enquiry: Lesson 10: Reflect on pupils’ own ideas about community, belonging and belief. Are these only part of organised religions, or are they important for everyone? Lesson 11: How is it helpful to have others on life’s journey with you? Lesson 12: Individual response to the Big Question.

Summer A – What does it mean to be a Hindu in Britain today?	6 weeks Knowledge giving: Lesson 1: Learn that Hindu dharma is incredibly diverse as a whole way of life rather than a set of beliefs. What objects might you find in a Hindu's home and why? E.g. murtis, family shrine, statues and pictures of deities, puja tray including incense, fruit, bells, flowers, candles; some sacred texts such as the Bhagavad Gita, OM symbols. What kinds of things would Hindu families do during the week? Daily puja, blessing food, aarti ceremony, singing hymns, reading holy texts, visit the temple etc. Talk about which objects and actions are most important and why. What similarities and differences are there with the family values and home rituals of pupils in the class? Lesson 2: Explore Hindu ideas about the four aims of life (punusharthas) dharma: religious or moral duty; artha: economic development, providing for family and society by honest means; kama: regulated enjoyment of the pleasures and beauty of life; moksha: liberation from the cycle of birth and rebirth; reincarnation. Lesson 3: Explore Hindu ideas of karma – how actions bring good or bad karma. Find out how and why 'snakes and ladders' links with Hindu ideas of karma. Lesson 4: Find out about some ways in which Hindus make a difference in the worldwide community. How does a Hindu way of life guide them in how they live? E.g. Mahatma Gandhi, Pandurang Shastri Athavale. Enquiry: Lesson 5: Is it important to have a religion? What are the challenges to belonging to a faith? Does it matter which mandir you attend? What are the values that a Hindu should show? Are they similar to your own values? How is family and belonging important in Hinduism? Lesson 6: Individual response to the Big Question.
Summer B – What can we learn from religions about deciding what is right and wrong?	7 weeks Knowledge giving: Lesson 1: Explore teachings which act as guides for living within Judaism, Christianity, and a non-religious belief system, e.g. the Ten Commandments (Exodus 20:1–21, Deuteronomy 5:1–22) and the golden rule for Humanists. Work out what people must have been doing if they needed to be given those rules. Do people still behave like that? What difference would it make if people keep these guides for living? Lesson 2: Use religious stories to explore the idea of temptation, and how it affects how people choose between good and bad, e.g. in Christianity, use Genesis 3 and the 'Fall', and Jesus resisting temptation in Matthew 4. Lesson 3: Share teachings from different religions that give examples of how to live 'a good life', e.g. connect with Unit L2.10 to explore Jewish teachings about being thankful or Christian teaching from Jesus on the Beatitudes (Matthew 5:2–13). Lesson 4: Talk about how pupils learn the difference between right and wrong. Sometimes the commands or guidance from religions help people to work out what the right thing is. If religions say that God inspires their rules for living, where do non-religious people look for guidance? Find out about how Humanists decide about right and wrong. Lesson 5: Explore the lives of some inspirational religious individuals (e.g. Desmond Tutu, Martin Luther King Jr). Consider how their religious faith inspired and guided them in their lives. Reflect on the value of love, forgiveness, honesty, kindness, generosity and service in pupils' own lives and the lives of others, in the light of their studies in RE. Enquiry: Lesson 6: If you have been bad, does that mean you can never be good? Lesson 7: Individual response to the Big Question.

Autumn A and Autumn B – Why do some people believe God exists?	15 weeks Knowledge giving: Lesson 1: Find out about how many people in the world and in your local area believe in God – using the 2021 UK census. Lesson 2: Find out about how many people in the world and in your local area believe in God – using global statistics. Lesson 3: Ask pupils why they think so many people believe in God. Collect these reasons. Lesson 4: Find out about how many do not believe. Learn the words ‘theist’ (believes in God), agnostic (cannot say if God exists or not) and atheist (believes there is no god). Lesson 5: Clarify what Christians believe God is like. Build on learning from Key Question L2.1, and explore some of the names of God and metaphors for God in the Bible (e.g. God as Father, Spirit, Son, eternal, almighty, holy, shepherd, rock, fortress, light). Lesson 6: If this God is real, what difference would ‘he’ make to the way people live? Make links with prior learning about the Bible and its ‘big story’ (Key Question L2.2). Lesson 7 and 8: Explore some reasons why people do (lesson 7) or do not (lesson 8) believe in God. Consider some of the main reasons. These include reasons from psychology of religion, and from philosophy: family background – many people believe (or don’t believe) because of their home background; religious experience – many people say they have experienced a sense of ‘the presence of God’ or had prayer answered; many would argue that the universe, the Earth and life are extraordinary and are best explained as the result of an all-powerful Creator. Many people who do not believe in God point to the existence of terrible suffering as a key reason. Some argue that there is no need to use a Creator to explain the existence of the universe and life. Lesson 9: Consider ways in which Christians read the Genesis account of creation. Explore why some Christians read it literally. Lesson 10: Consider ways in which Christians read the Genesis account of creation. Explore how lots of Christians read it as expressing some truths about God and human beings without reading it literally. Lesson 11 and 12: Find out about Christians who are also scientists (e.g. Jennifer Wiseman, John Polkinghorne). Lesson 13: Invite some Christians, agnostics and atheists in to answer questions about why they do or do not believe in God. Enquiry: Lesson 14: If God exists, then why do bad things happen in the world? Spring A – If God is everywhere, why go to a place of worship?	6 weeks Knowledge giving: Lesson 1: Find out some of the key features of places of worship: e.g. some differences between Anglican and Baptist churches; mandir; differences between an Orthodox and a Reform synagogue. Lesson 2: Explore the duty of pilgrimage in Hinduism, which is seen as a wider part of worship. This concerns the need for Hindus to be seen by the deity worshipping at a particular shrine. Does this mean that God is concentrated more intensely in particular places? Lesson 3: What different ways of worshipping can they find within Christianity? Reflect on why some Christians like to go to church to meet with God, and why some meet in a school or in a home; e.g. community, being part of the ‘body of Christ’, mutual support through prayer and encouragement, music vs meditation, silence, simplicity, nature; some don’t like institutions, hierarchies, crowds! Why do Christians worship in different ways? Lesson 4: Can pupils talk about a place where people might say or feel God is somehow more ‘present’? What is special about these places? • Consider these definitions: ‘synagogue’ = ‘house of assembly’ (a place to get together), also called ‘schul’ = school (a place to learn). Answer the key question in light of these definitions. Enquiry: Lesson 5: Is it better to worship alone or as part of a community? Lesson 6: Individual response to the Big Question.
Spring B – What would Jesus do? Can we live by the values of Jesus in the twenty-first century?	6 weeks Knowledge giving: Lesson 1: Examine Luke 4:18–19 and find out what Jesus saw as his mission. Find examples of where he fulfilled this. Love: use some of Jesus’ stories, teachings and example to understand what Christians believe he meant by loving others (e.g. greatest commandments, Matthew 22:37–40; ‘Love your enemies’, Matthew 5:43–48; compare Paul’s letter, 1 Corinthians 13:4–7; explore the idea of agape love – self-sacrificial love; make a link with the Christian belief that Jesus died to show his love for all humans, (e.g. in John 3:16). Lesson 2: Forgiveness: use some of Jesus’ stories, teachings and example to understand why he saw forgiveness as so important (e.g. forgive others, Mark 11:25/Luke 6:37; the two debtors, Luke 7:36–50; the unforgiving servant, Matthew 18:21–35; Jesus forgives those who crucify him, Luke 23:34). Lesson 3: Justice and fairness: use some of Jesus’ stories, teaching and examples to understand the way Christians believe we should treat each other (serve others, Mark 9:35–37; not just speaking about justice but practising it, Luke 11:39–42). Lesson 4: Generosity and not being greedy: use some of Jesus’ stories, teaching and examples to understand the way Christians believe we should handle wealth (the vineyard workers, Matthew 20:1–16; widow’s offering, Mark 12:41–44; the rich young man, Mark 10:17–27; Zacchaeus, Luke 19:1–9). Enquiry: Lesson 5: Some say Jesus’ demands are impossible: is this true, and if so, is it worth aiming for them or not? Lesson 6: Individual response to the Big Question.

Summer A – What does it mean to be a Muslim in Britain today?	6 weeks Knowledge giving: Lesson 1: Gain a rich knowledge of the practice, meaning and significance of the Five Pillars of Islam as an expression of ibadah (worship and belief in action). Shahadah (belief in one God and his Prophet); salat (daily prayer); sawm (fasting); zakat (alms giving); hajj (pilgrimage). How do these affect the lives of Muslims, moment by moment, daily, annually, in a lifetime? Lesson 2: Learn, think about and discuss the value and challenge for Muslims of following the Five Pillars, and how they might make a difference to individual Muslims and to the Muslim community (Ummah). Investigate how they are practised by Muslims in Britain today. Consider what beliefs, practices and values are significant in pupils' lives. Lesson 3: Consider the importance of the Holy Qur'an for Muslims: how it was revealed to the Prophet Muhammad, how it is used, treated, learnt. Share examples of stories and teaching, e.g. Surah 1, Al-Fatihah (The Opening); Surah 17, the Prophet's Night Journey. Find out about people who memorise the Qur'an and why (hafiz, hafiza). Find out about the difference between the authority of the Qur'an and other forms of guidance for Muslims: Sunnah (practices, customs and traditions of the Prophet Muhammad); Hadith (sayings and actions of the Prophet Muhammad). Lesson 4: Investigate the design and purpose of a mosque/masjid and explain how and why the architecture and activities, such as preparing for prayer, reflect Muslim beliefs. Enquiry: Lesson 5: How could we bring harmony to our multi-cultural society? Lesson 6: Individual response to the Big Question.
Summer B – Green religion? How and why should religious communities do more to care for the Earth?	7 weeks Knowledge giving: Lesson 1: Use a case study about Greta Thunberg to introduce the issues of climate justice. From her story, what can pupils tell about her personal worldview? What matters most to her? Greta is non-religious. Lesson 2: Use this case study to enable pupils to think about the meanings of some key questions: whose world is this? Why do humans pollute their own earth? Why do extinctions matter? Can we care better for our planet? Who is most at risk from environmental change? Does the earth belong to God? If some people believe the earth does belong to God, how should they live? What about the beliefs that humans or the powers of nature 'own the planet'? Lesson 3: Learn in detail about key concepts such as khalifah (Islam), stewardship (Christianity), Bhumi (goddess in Hindu dharma) and Tu B'Shevat (Jewish) which have implications for care of the earth. Connect these ideas to words and stories from sacred texts about the natural world. Lesson 4: Learn about the work of projects such as the Jewish Ecological Coalition, Islamic Relief's tree-planting, the Hindu Bhumi Project, Christian projects such as Eco Church or Operation Noah. Consider some reasons why these projects may need to grow and influence their traditions more strongly. Should religions be greener? Lesson 5: Learn in detail about examples of creative expressions of green spirituality from different faiths in works of art, music, drama, prophecy and activist protests or actions: what are the spiritual roots of such expression, and what impacts can they have? ▪ Find out about connections between ancient wisdom in holy texts and some ways religious people have become "climate justice activists". Enquiry: Lesson 6: If something doesn't affect us, should we care? Lesson 7: Individual response to the Big Question.

Manchester, Salford, Stockport, Tameside and Trafford (MSSTT) Agreed Syllabus for Religious Education 2022–2027: KS2

The principal aim of RE is to engage pupils in systematic enquiry into significant human questions which religion and worldviews address, so that they can develop the understanding and skills needed to appreciate and appraise varied responses to these questions, as well as develop responses of their own.

Know about and understand a range of religions and worldviews:

Describe and make connections between different features of the religions and worldviews they study, discovering more about celebrations, worship, pilgrimages and the rituals which mark important points in life, in order to reflect on their significance.

Describe and understand links between stories and other aspects of the communities they are investigating, responding thoughtfully to a range of sources of wisdom and to beliefs and teachings that arise from them in different communities.

Explore and describe a range of beliefs, symbols and actions so that they can understand different ways of life and ways of expressing meaning.

Express ideas and insights about the nature, significance and impact of religions and worldviews:

Observe and understand varied examples of religions and worldviews so that they can explain, with reasons, their meanings and significance to individuals and communities.

Understand the challenges of commitment to a community of faith or belief, suggesting why belonging to a community may be valuable, both in the diverse communities being studied and in their own lives.

Observe and consider different dimensions of religion, so that they can explore and show understanding of similarities and differences within and between different religions and worldviews

Gain and deploy the skills needed to engage seriously with religions and worldviews:

Discuss and present thoughtfully their own and others' views on challenging questions about belonging, meaning, purpose and truth, applying ideas of their own in different forms including eg reasoning, music, art and poetry.

Consider and apply ideas about ways in which diverse communities can live together for the wellbeing of all, responding thoughtfully to ideas about community, values and respect.

Discuss and apply their own and others' ideas about ethical questions, including ideas about what is right and wrong and what is just and fair, and express their own ideas clearly in response.

Sequence of learning
Autumn A and Autumn B - What do religions say to us when life gets hard?	15 weeks Knowledge giving: Lesson 1: Use stimulus material to encourage pupils to ask questions about life, death, suffering, and what matters most in life. Lesson 2: Analyse and evaluate pupils' questions, to recognise and reflect on how some 'big questions' do not have easy answers, and how people offer different answers to some of the big questions about life, death, suffering etc. Lesson 3: Explore ways in which religions help people to live, even when times are tough, e.g. through prayer, giving a sense of purpose, a guide to deciding what is right and wrong, membership of a community who care for each other, opportunities to celebrate together: gather and deploy knowledge from different religions and worldviews. Lesson 4: Introduce the idea that most religious traditions teach about some form of life after death, which can bring comfort to people as they face suffering, or if they are bereaved. Teach pupils that some people believe that death is the end of life, and that there is no afterlife. Lesson 5: Learn some key concepts about life after death in Christianity (such as judgement, heaven, salvation through Jesus). Lesson 6: Learn some key concepts about life after death in Hinduism (karma, soul, samsara, reincarnation and moksha). Lesson 7: Learn some key concepts about a non-religious view about what happens after death, e.g. Humanism. Lesson 8: Consider similarities in ceremonies that mark the end of life on Earth and how these express different beliefs. Lesson 9: Consider differences in ceremonies that mark the end of life on Earth and how these express different beliefs. Lesson 10 and 11: Read and respond to prayers, liturgies, meditation texts and songs/hymns used when someone has died, and think about the questions and beliefs they address. Lesson 12: Ask some religious believers to explain how their faith has helped them in difficult times, and how it encourages them to enjoy life too. Lesson 13: Taking due care, ask pupils to reflect on and express clearly their own ideas, concerns and possibly worries about death and the idea of life beyond. Enquiry: Lesson 14: If we're all going to die, should we care about what we do? Lesson 15: Individual response to the Big Question.

Sequence of learning
Spring A - What matters most to Christians and to Humanists?	6 weeks Knowledge giving: Lesson 1: Talk about what kinds of behaviour and actions pupils think of as bad (examples from films, books, TV as well as real life). Rank some of these ideas – which are the worst, and which are less bad? Why? Reflect on the question: why do people do good things and bad things? Are we all a mixture of good and bad? Explore pupils' answers. Make a link with Christian belief about humans being made in the image of God (Genesis 1:28) and also sinful (the 'Fall' in Genesis 3). Why do Christians think this is a good explanation of why humans are good and bad? Make a link with what it means to be a Humanist: 'good without God' is a Humanist slogan. Lesson 2: Talk about how having a 'code for living' might help people to be good. Talk about the difference if someone believes guidance comes from a divine Being (e.g. many Christians) or that human beings must decide their own guidelines (most non-religious). Look at a Humanist 'code for living', e.g. Be honest; Use your mind; Be rational; Tell the truth; Do to other people what you would like them to do to you. How would this help people to behave? What would a Humanist class, school or town look like? Lesson 3: Explore the meanings of some big moral concepts, e.g. fairness, freedom, truth, honesty, kindness, peace. What do they look like in everyday life? Christian codes for living, which can be summed up in Jesus' two great commandments: 'Love God and love your neighbour'. Explore in detail how Jesus expects his followers to behave through the use of the story of the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25–37) and Jesus' attitude on the cross (Luke 23:32–35). Jesus talks about actions as fruit. What does he mean? If a person's intentions are bad, can their actions produce good fruit? Lesson 4: Discuss what matters most, e.g. by ranking, sorting and ordering a list of 'valuable things': family / friends / Xbox / pets / God / food / being safe / being clever / being beautiful / being good / sport / music / worship / love / honesty / human beings. Get pupils to consider why they hold the values which they do, and how these values make a difference to their lives. Enquiry: Lesson 5: Is thinking bad thoughts as bad as acting upon them? Lesson 6: Individual response to the Big Question.
Spring B - What difference does it make to believe in Ahimsa (harmlessness), Grace and Ummah (community)?	6 weeks Knowledge giving: Lesson 1: Learn that for Hindus being harmless means, for example, no violence, eating no meat and wearing no leather; find out how ahimsa links to ideas of karma and reincarnation. Find out about how Gandhi practised ahimsa in the liberation of India; if people believed in ahimsa, what difference would it make to farming, supermarkets, your meals, community relations, international relations? Why doesn't everybody believe in being harmless? Lesson 2: Learn that for Christians the idea of grace from God means that God loves people unconditionally and is willing to offer forgiveness to anyone for anything. Recall how this is illustrated by the story of the forgiving father/lost son (Luke 15: 11–32). Make links between the idea of grace, Christian belief in Jesus' death and resurrection as an expression of God's love, and Christian forgiveness today (Luke 23:34, John 3:16, 1 John 1:7–9). Lesson 3: Recall that for Muslims, the worldwide Muslim community is called the Ummah, and being part of the Ummah is expressed, e.g. in pilgrimage to Makkah and in shared welfare through zakat. Explore the impact of the practice of zakat and hajj on Muslims, locally, in the UK and globally, drawing attention to some ways Muslims care for each other in one community. Lesson 4: Discuss and consider the impact of ahimsa, grace and Ummah: if we all followed these ideas, how would life change? Make links between the three concepts: how are they similar and how different? Which has most impact and why? Weigh up the value and impact of these key ideas for themselves. Enquiry: Lesson 5: Why do we need other people? Lesson 6: Individual response to the Big Question.

Summer A - Is it better to express your religion in arts and architecture or in charity and generosity?	6 weeks Knowledge giving: Lesson 1: Find out lots of information about some great examples of religious art and architecture and present their reasons for choosing those they find most impressive; Notice, list and explain similarities and differences between Christian and Muslim sacred buildings. Lesson 2: Discuss Muslim and Christian ideas (e.g. from scriptures) about the importance of being generous and charitable, ranking the ideas according to their importance, and applying them to issues about poverty and charity. Consider why Christians and Muslims think giving money away is important, and what difference this makes, both to those who give and to those who receive. Lesson 3: Compare Christian and Muslim ideas about art (e.g. contrasting views on presenting God or people in art; use of calligraphy/ geometrical art vs representational art, narrative art from the life of Jesus and the art inspired by the text of the Qur'an). Suggest reasons why some people may be critical of religious art/ architecture, and why some would defend it as important. Lesson 4: Connect ways in which art and actions can reveal what people believe about God (e.g. cathedrals and mosques might express ideas of greatness and perfection of God; actions might suggest that God is concerned with justice). Enquiry: Lesson 5: What would a world without charity or generosity be like? Lesson 6: Individual response to the Big Question.
Summer B - What can be done to reduce racism? Can religion help?	7 weeks Knowledge giving: Lesson 1: Learn in depth and detail about the statues of Colston and Wesley in Bristol. Lesson 2: Consider how music, film, prayer, art and other forms of expression have been used in struggles against racism. Lesson 3: Enable pupils to think for themselves about the ways that scriptures encourage religious people to treat all humans with dignity, respect, equity or love – and consider reasons why this does not always happen. Lesson 4: Learn that early Christian traditions include important stories about human unity, even though the Christian church has sometimes been complicit in racism. Lesson 5: Learn that Prophet Muhammad taught his followers to set racial difference aside. Enquiry: Lesson 6: Why are religious people sometimes racist even though they preach love for all? Lesson 7: Individual response to the Big Question.
