

CAN I WRITE A FANTASY STORY FROM A WORDLESS BOOK?

Key Vocabulary
adventure	imagination	Journey
direction	magic	illustration
danger	bravery	courage
emperor	cage	resilience
friendship	resourcefulness	curiosity
kindness	determination	wonder
purpose	storytelling	fantasy
Substantive - subject specific words		Bigger Picture - lesson support words

National Curriculum Objectives
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> plan their writing by; identifying the audience for and purpose of the writing; noting and developing initial ideas, drawing on reading and research; using a wide range of devices to build cohesion within and across paragraphs ask questions to develop understanding; partake in class discussions and share ideas and opinions; identifying and discussing themes in and across a wide range of writing and making comparisons within and across books in narratives, describing settings, characters and atmosphere and integrating dialogue to convey character and advance the action; drawing inferences such as inferring characters' feelings, thoughts and motives from their actions, and justifying inferences with evidence evaluate and edit by; assessing the effectiveness of their own and others' writing and proofread for spelling and punctuation errors;

Intents	Pupil	Teacher
Can I make predictions about a story, with only an image to begin with?
Can I plan and write the opening of the story by employing imagination and creativity ?
Can I read, plan and write the next section of the story, with a focus on curiosity and mystery ?
Can I plan and write a chapter of the story with danger and adventure ?
Can I read, plan and write the ending of the story Journey with suspense , tension and adventure ?
Do I know the features of a blurb and am I able plan and write the blurb of the next book titled "Quest"?
Can I continue the theme of the next book titled "Quest" and design the front cover?

Key vocabulary to define for further understanding	