Message from Mrs. Holland

What a lovely week in school we have had. We celebrated The Presentation of the Lord on Tuesday by having Mass in school. This gave me the opportunity to help children learn the responses that happen in Mass by using a power point alongside Father William's words. The children engaged beautifully with this and I was a very proud Headteacher. I have noticed lots of small acts of kindness around school this week with children helping each other, supporting each other's learning and generally making good choices. As parents, you are all doing a good job. You may have seen my email a couple of days ago about a vacancy at school for a cleaner. If you know of anyone, please point them in the direction of the advert. Have a lovely weekend, Mrs Holland.
