Message from Mrs. Holland

This week, I have had the pleasure of being part of classes Celebration of the Word. I have been absolutely blown away by how reflective and respectful our children are. Their knowledge of the gospels and our gospel values is amazing and I can see those values being put into action by how they care for each other day to day. It really has been the highlight of my week. Thank you to those parents who have donated creme eggs for our Holy Week fundraising activities, your generosity is very much appreciated. I will send out a letter next week detailing all the fundraising activities we have planned for that week. There is a lot going on over the next few weeks so please keep an eye on your emails so you don't miss anything important. Have a lovely weekend. Mrs Holland
