Message from Mrs. Holland

We have survived our first full week back and I can see a few tired faces today. It is so lovely to hear the chatter of children as I move through school as they all settle into their new classes and routines. We really do have the best children. Thank you for your support with uniform; children are looking very smart which I am sure will continue. We have a lot coming up over the next term so please take a look at the dates of events on the last page of the newsletter and make a note of those which apply to you. I am sure we will have a very positive term.

Have a lovely weekend, Mrs Holland
