Message from Mrs. Holland

Welcome back to the second half of the Autumn term. We hope you have had a lovely, restful break and are now ready for the preparations for Christmas. The weather is getting steadily colder so please do remember to send your little ones in with coats. I am sure you have seen my emails from earlier this week about the film night next week and the forthcoming Christmas Fayre. Thank you to those who have already caught me on the playground to offer help - it is very much appreciated. There is a lot happening this half term so please do keep an eye on your emails.
Have a lovely half term, Mrs Holland.
