DO TRY THIS AT HOME

Issue #14

Featuring:
Marvin and Milo

I can crush this bottle with no hands!

Very carefully pour a little hot water into the bottle, or ask a grown-up to help.

Shake the bottle...

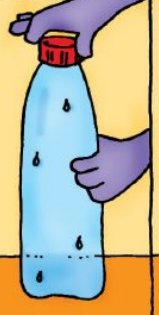

What you need: • A plastic bottle • Some hot water

...then pour out the water...

... and put the lid on.

Put the bottle down and wait a few minutes.

The hot water raises the temperature – the pressure increases and the molecules spread out

(some leave the bottle). When the air cools, the pressure is lower than before because there are fewer molecules bouncing around. The air pushing on the outside of the bottle has more pressure, which crushes the bottle.

Hot Chocolate

with the Head!

Mr Mycroft-Armer

These children were invited to Mr Mycroft-Armer's hot chocolate afternoon.

They were nominated by teachers and parents in recognition of them going above and beyond or excelling in an area, not just academically.

Well done to:

Sonny, Sidney, Lucas, Oscar, Stevie, Dylan, Mollie-Mae, Kailani, Benjamin and Athena.

If your child has done something that you feel is worthy of a hot chocolate then send in details to headteacher@newbrighton.wirral.sch.uk

Thanks for all of the parent nominations last week, we take them all into consideration – looking forward to next week!

Joey and Chandler have had a very exciting couple of weeks. Last week was half term, and because it was SO hot, they spent lots of time trying to stay cool in the shade. They also discovered something amazing... a paddling pool! Splish, splash, wag, wag!

Both boys thought this was brilliant fun.

They also had a trip to the beach, where they got very sandy, very wet and VERY messy. Mr Mycroft-Armer was not quite as excited when he had to put two sandy, soggy Golden Retrievers back into his car!

Sorry, not sorry!

Since coming back to school, Joey and Chandler have absolutely LOVED Reading all the emails and looking at the photos from the Half Term Walking Challenge. Thank you so much to everyone who took part. You have given them lots of brilliant places to explore, and they cannot wait to try some of your walks.

Aaaaaand I would walk 500 miles, Aaaaaand ...

The boys are also continuing with their training so they can become the very best therapy dogs for everyone at New Brighton. They have loved meeting some of you this week, but please remember that Joey and Chandler are still puppies. They can get very excited, so calm voices, gentle hands and lots of space really help them.

Boing!

They have also been very impressed by the wonderful pictures some children have drawn for them. In fact, Joey and Chandler now have their very own display board in Mr Mycroft-Armer's room for all these fantastic pieces of artwork. They think it looks pawsome and look forward to receiving more!

Joke of the Week

Why did the puppy bring a pencil to school?
Because he wanted to draw a paw-trait!

Well done to class 4LM who have the highest reading average this week and to class Hub 2 who have the most improved score. Please try to read 5 times a week with your child - the results of regular reading make such a difference to them across all subjects in the curriculum.

Many thanks to all parents and carers who park considerately when collecting and dropping off or picking up. We understand how busy it is at times around school and that there are often not many suitable spaces for parking. Please can we remind all parents and carers not to park on the zig zag lines or over dropped curbs.

WATER SAFETY

STAY SAFE, HAVE FUN!

As the weather warms up, many families will be spending more time near water – whether at the coast, rivers, lakes, or canals. While this can be a great way to enjoy the outdoors, it's important to remember that water can be unpredictable and dangerous.

It's important that everyone is aware of a few simple steps to stay safe:

KNOW THE RISKS – conditions can change quickly, and it's easier than you might think to get into difficulty in open water.

ALWAYS SUPERVISE children and young people closely around water – even if they can swim.

AVOID JUMPING into unknown water – there may be hidden hazards, and sudden entry can lead to cold water shock.

TEACH CHILDREN WHAT TO DO IF THEY GET INTO TROUBLE: FLOAT TO LIVE – tilt your head back, keep your ears submerged, relax and gently move your hands and feet to stay afloat while you control your breathing.

FLOAT TO LIVE

- ✓ Tilt your head back
- ✓ Keep your ears submerged
- ✓ Relax
- ✓ Gently move your hands and feet
- ✓ Control your breathing

KNOW HOW TO CALL FOR HELP – in an emergency, dial 999 or 112 and ask for the Coastguard.

IN AN EMERGENCY
DIAL 999 OR 112
AND ASK FOR THE COASTGUARD

Talking to children about water safety before visiting any location near water can make a vital difference. ❤️
