

Knowledge Organiser- History - Year 1 - Spring Term 2026

Daily life - How has daily life in Britain changed over the last 100 years?

STICKY KNOWLEDGE

A washboard, a flat iron and a candle snuffer were items found in the household.	Lots of new toys are electronic and most old toys are moved by hand	Some kitchens didn't have fridges
100 years ago, high streets had shops like green grocers, bakeries, fishmongers and market stalls	100 years ago people communicated through letters, radio, telephone boxes and conversation.	Some modes of transport include horse and carriage, trains, cycling, walking and some cars

Do you notice any differences between these telephones?

KEY VOCABULARY
Britain	The island containing England, Scotland and Wales.
Housewife	A woman who's main job is to stay at home to look after her family and the house.
High street	The main street of a town.
Communication	Sending or exchanging information by speaking or writing.
Electricity	Cables are used to power electrical items using electricity.
Transport	Taking or carrying (people or goods) from one place to another using a vehicle.

