

Churchwardens

Sadly, Richard Green and Naso Yordanov's term as churchwardens will come to an end following this year's APCM, so 2 new churchwardens will need to be appointed.

If anyone can consider this position, we would be truly grateful. There is a written job description at the back of the church but please don't get dismayed with all the jobs the current wardens do, it's not that bad! Diana, Carol, Richard or Naso are happy to speak to anyone who is interested.

Thank you in advance

Rev Diana

If any regular attendees would like a stewardship envelope, please let John Nicholson know

Donations for School Bibles

Last year we raised an amazing amount of money towards Bibles for Reception and Year 6 classes, at St James School. The school has asked whether this would be possible again? Any donation would be greatly appreciated. There is a box at the back of church if you want to put any donations in or pass on to John Nicholson or bring to the parish office.

Many thanks

Candles for Ukraine

You may have heard of Mark Stevens who is based at a church in Ludlow. He has been collecting candles and used wax from churches to deliver to Ukraine. The used wax/candles is used to heat small stoves. Do you have any used candles/wax you don't need that could be passed on to him?
