Message from the Head

At Newtown, we believe that learning stretches far beyond the walls of the classroom. Extra-curricular activities, educational visits, and hands-on experiences play a vital role in helping children develop curiosity, confidence, and a sense of connection with the wider world. These opportunities allow pupils to explore new environments, encounter real-life applications of their learning, and build memories that stay with them for years to come.

Wherever possible, we aim to offer a trip or visit every half term. These rich experiences broaden horizons, deepen understanding, and bring learning to life in a way that simply cannot be replicated through lessons alone. This term is no different – staff have been working hard behind the scenes to plan meaningful activities that support our curriculum and inspire our learners.

This week we have successfully applied for a travel grant from Flaxmill Maltings to go towards transportation costs. We are currently in the process of organising a Year 3 and Year 4 visit for before the Easter break.

We have also finalised arrangements for our annual Year 6 visit to London which will take place on April 15th this year.

Details about both trips to be circulated next week – and further things in the pipeline for all our other classes... watch this space!
