Autumn 2

National Non-Fiction November 01.11.2025 is the start of National Non-Fiction November. Create a non-fiction fact file about something you are interested in. It could be about a sport, a sportsperson, history or a historical figure, a scientist, an animal – the list is endless and you can decide how to present your work.	Christmas Design and make a Christmas card for your class.
Music Listen to a piece of classical music – who was the composer? What was the piece of music called? What emotions and images did the music evoke?	Geography Weather Watcher Keep a weather diary for one week. Each day, draw the weather and write one word (e.g., sunny, cloudy, rainy). Challenge: Which type of weather happened the most?
RE Retell the Nativity Story. You can decide how you would like to present this. You might want to re-enact this with your family, sequence pictures, re-write it, create a stable scene etc.	Remembrance Day Find out about Remembrance Day. Why is it so important? Who do we remember and why? Why do people wear poppies? You might want to create a poppy wreath that we can put up in our classroom. Here are some examples.
