

1. When do we use 'an' as a determiner?
2. Add a dash to this sentence:
I find playing chess tricky there are too many rules to remember.
3. Circle the relative pronoun:
The mountain, which could be seen in the distance, had snow on top of it.
4. Complete the sentence below with a word from the root word 'thought':
Josh was a very _____ young man.
5. Complete this sentence with an appropriate preposition:
She ran _____ the games field.

6. Write a sentence using the word 'book' as a verb.
7. Add a comma to the sentence below:
I love cheese crisps and chocolate.
8. What kind of conjunction is underlined? My brother lives in Sweden, and he loves it over there!
9. What is the grammatical term for the underlined words? Charlie dropped the vase , but it didn't smash.
10. What is the word class of the underlined words? The alarm rang and Jamal immediately jumped out of bed.