Children are welcome to come to school dressed up in their PJs and dressing gowns, they are free to dress up as a character from a book as well. There is no pressure to dress up at all if children do not want to and please do not specifically buy costumes as this is not the purpose or meaning of world book day. Costume or no costume, children are all encouraged to bring in one of their favourite books to share, read and talk about. We will be having lots of different reading book activities throughout the day, opportunities to listen to stories read by teachers and their friends, plus much more! Children will also receive their world book day vouchers on the day as well which they can exchange for selected books from participating retailers.

Tuesday 17th March – SEND coffee morning 9.00am to 10.30am- we'd love for you to join us for a relaxed and friendly coffee morning where you can meet members of our SEND team. Whether you have specific questions, concerns, or just want a chat—we're here to listen and support. It's a great opportunity to connect, share, and learn more about how we can work together to support your child. No need to book – just pop in! We look forward to seeing you there.
