

ENGLISH

We will be practising a range of grammar skills this term which will feature in a variety of text types:

- Use a wider range of connectives to extend the range of complex sentences.
- Use past and present tense accurately throughout a piece of writing.
- Use main and subordinate clauses and move their position in sentences.
- Use commas accurately to demarcate clauses in complex sentences.
- Indicate degrees of possibility through the use of adverbs and modal verbs.

Term 3

The Roman Empire & its impact on Britain (AD43-AD 410)

In this topic, we will discover why Julius Caesar wanted to invade Britain and how Emperor Claudius finally succeeded in conquering this land in 43CE. We will explore how life changed for the native tribes of Britannia, about the rebellion led by Boudicca and about Hadrian's Wall; the furthest reaches of the Roman Empire
