

Fantastically great women who changed the world

Key vocabulary
Rights	Things that people should be allowed to have or do , like voting or going to school.
Activist	A person who speaks up or takes action to make things fairer.
Significant	Someone or something that is important and remembered .
Brave	Doing something helpful or right , even when it feels scary.
Change	When something becomes different from before.

Key People

Emmeline Pankhurst

Helen Keller

Rosa Parks

Malala Yousafzai

Key knowledge

Rosa Parks' refusal to give up her seat on a bus in 1955 was a major event in the battle to get black people treated equally.

Ada Lovelace wrote the first computer ideas in 1843. She showed that women could be clever inventors

Emmeline Pankhurst fought for women's rights in 1918. She helped women get the right to vote.

In 2014, Malala won a prize for standing up for girls' education.

In 1960, Jane Goodall began studying chimpanzees in Africa.

