

Explorers

Sticky Facts

- Neil Armstrong was an astronaut and was the first man to walk on the moon in 1969,
- In 2015, Tim Peake was the first British person to live on the ISS for 6 months
- Christopher Columbus was a sailor who lived over 500 years ago.
- Christopher Columbus became famous for discovering America.
- Amelia Earhart was famous for being a female pilot.
- In 1928, she became the first woman to fly solo across the Atlantic and back

Key Vocabulary

Famous	Someone who is known by many people
Courage	The ability to do something that frightens others.
Astronaut	A person who is trained to go into space
Apollo	A project to send a human into space and explore the Moon.
Mission	A task or job that has been given to do.
Role model	Someone who others look to as a good example
Explorer	Someone who travels to places where very little is known in order to discover what is there.
Sailor	Someone who works on a ship or sails a boat
Founder	If a ship founders, it fills with water and sinks
Pilot	Someone who is trained to fly an aircraft
Events	Something that happens that is unusual or important
Past	Before the moment of speaking or writing.
Present	Happening now

Exciting reads