

The Stone Age

Sticky Facts

- The Stone Age is prehistoric because it began around 3 million years ago before people invented writing
- First came the Stone Age, then the Bronze Age, then the Iron Age
- Stone age houses: caves; Bronze Age houses: roundhouses; Iron Age: hill forts and villages with forts
- Stone Age hunter-gatherers, hunted animals, fished and gathered fruit and veg; Bronze Age farmers, farmed crops and kept animals; Iron Age people still farmed and hunted.
- Stone Age tools: hand axes, bone tools; Bronze Age tools: knives, pottery, ploughs; Iron Age tools: metal
- People used animal skins to make clothes and for shelter. Needles were made out of animal bones to sew clothes.
- People painted cave paintings of animals and people on cave walls.
- Skara Brae is a village in Scotland built during the stone age
- Stonehenge is a famous circle of stones in England built during the Stone

Hunter	gatherer	Farmer
Shelter/Cave	Hill fort
Roundhouse	Plough
Stone Age	Bronze Age
Iron Age	Site
Skara Brae	Stonehenge
Prehistoric

BC

AD

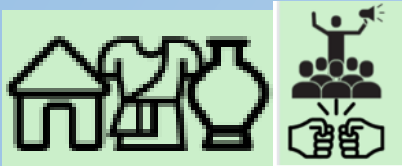

Great Fire of London 1666

Victorians
1837 - 1901

Stone Age
800,000 - 2500 BC

Bronze Age
2500 - 800 BC

Iron Age
800 BC - 43 AD

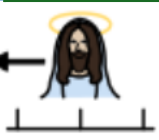

Ancient Greece

Sticky Facts

- Ancient Greece had two main city states – Athens and Sparta.
- Sparta was strict. Boys trained to be soldiers from age 7.
- Athenians (people from Athens) liked art and learning.
- Athens created democracy (people power), where men could vote. Today, everyone can vote.
- Greek boys went to school; girls learned skills at home.
- The Greeks invented theatre. Plays were performed outside and actors wore masks. Only men acted.
- People wore tunics called a chiton. Rich people wore colourful clothes.
- The Greeks believed in many gods and built temples for them.
- The Acropolis is a high hill in Athens, the Parthenon temple is on top. This is a Greek tourist attraction.
- Athena was the goddess of war; Poseidon was the god of the sea; Zeus was god of the sky; Artemis was goddess of hunting.
- The first Olympic Games were held in 776 BC to honour Zeus. We still have the Olympics today.

Key Vocabulary

Athenians	a person from Athens
Spartans	warriors living in the Greek city of Sparta
Helots	workers in Sparta who had to farm and do jobs for the Spartans
arts	things people make like drawings, music, or dancing
vote	when people choose something by raising hands or ticking a box
democracy	a way of choosing leaders where people get to have a say
theatre	a place where people watch plays or performances
Olympics	sports games that started in Ancient Greece
chiton	a long, woollen item of clothing worn in Ancient Greece
Acropolis	a high, rocky hill in Athens with important buildings on top
Parthenon	a big, famous temple in Athens
Athens	a big city in Ancient Greece – it is the capital city
Sparta	an ancient city in Greece
ancient	something very, very old

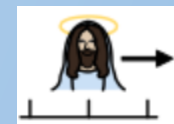

BC

Ancient Greece
800BC –
146BC

Great Fire of London 1666

Victorians
1837 -
1901

AD

Stone Age
800, 000 - 2500 BC

Bronze Age
2500 – 800 BC

Iron Age
800 BC – 43 AD

Year 3
Parklands