

Sticky facts to know and remember

- A city is a large town that usually has a cathedral and a bigger population than a town
- Population is the number of people that live in a place
- Ellesmere Port is a town; Liverpool, Manchester, and Chester are cities in the North West.
- A county is a region with fixed boundaries; Cheshire is our county,
- Cheshire, Merseyside, Greater Manchester, Cumbria, Lancashire are counties in the North West.
- People travel between cities and towns on roads and motorways
- A coast is the part of the land which meets the sea. Coastal features include beaches, cliffs, and caves.
- Coastal areas are popular features for holidays, especially in summer.
- Human features include lighthouses, harbours and coastal defences

County

City

Coast

Cliff

Erosion

Beach

Sea

Ocean

Human features

Physical features

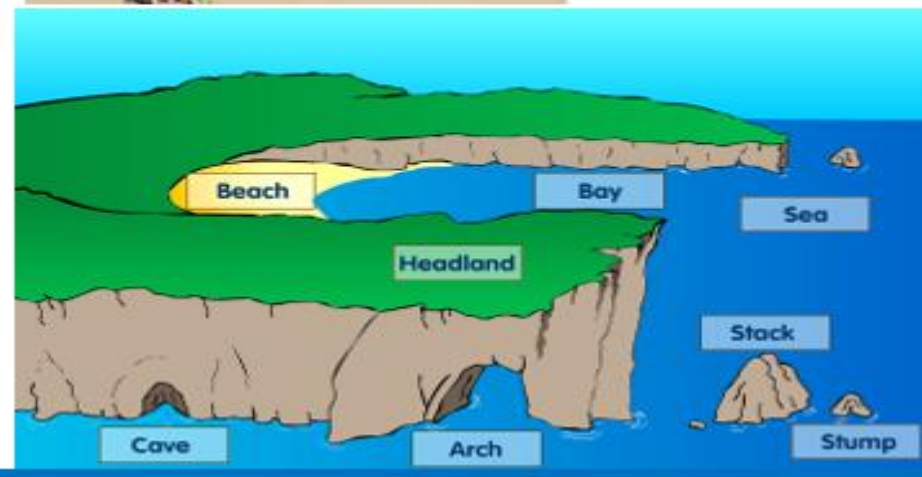

Brilliant
Books

Travel

Weather

Sticky facts to know and remember

- Europe is made up of 44 countries.
- The Mediterranean Sea separates Europe and Africa
- The capital of Greece is Athens; of France is Paris; of Spain is Madrid.
- Climate means long-term weather patterns; Greece has hot, dry summers and mild, wet winters.
- Countries near the equator are hotter.
- People who travel to visit other countries are called tourists
- Famous landmarks include the Eiffel Tower, Parthenon, Big Ben, Leaning Tower of Pisa.
- Tourists visit countries for their culture, food, and landmarks
- European countries use different currencies and have different time zones.

Climate

Tourism

Currency

£ GBP
€ EUR

Brilliant Books

Key Vocabulary

Continent

Europe

Mediterranean Sea

Greek Islands

Coastline

Euros

Country

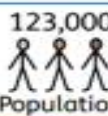

City

Climate/Weather

Tourists

123,000
Population

Landmarks

ATHENS

PARIS

BARCELONA

LONDON

PISA

Sticky facts to know and remember

- There are 8 compass points: N, NE, E, SE, S, SW, W, NW
- A physical map shows landmarks such as airports
- A political map shows country boundaries and cities.
- Know the following symbols on a map
Main Road Motorway Railway
Station Footpath Museum

Physical map

Political map

North-East

South-East

South-West

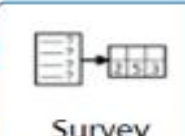

North-West

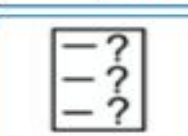

Compass

Political

Survey

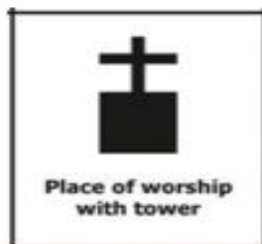

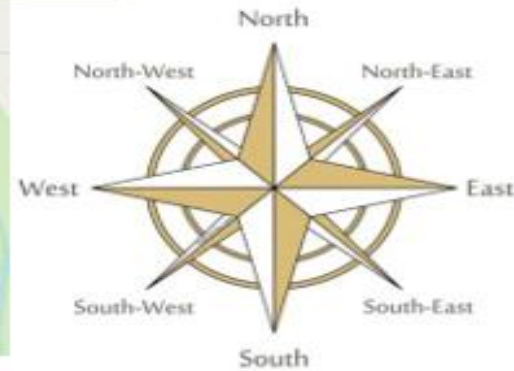

Questionnaire

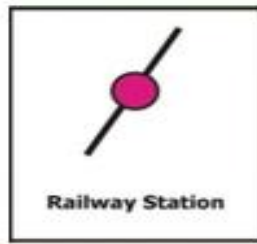

Map

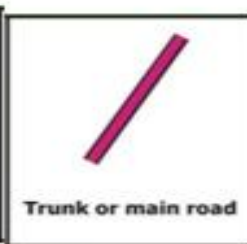

Physical

Place of worship with tower

Railway Station

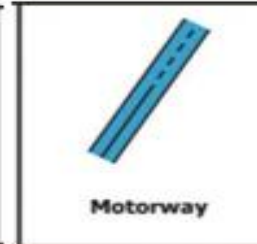

Trunk or main road

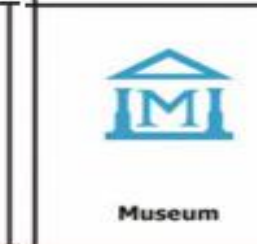

Non-coniferous trees

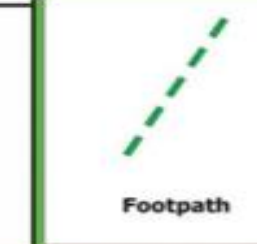

Coniferous trees

Motorway

Museum

Footpath

Cycle trail