Henri Rousseau

1844-1910

French Impressionist Painter

Impressionist painters use small, visible brushstrokes that offer the bare impression of form, unblended colour and an emphasis on the accurate depiction of natural light.

- Banksy is an anonymous graffiti artist - he keeps his identity hidden.
- Banksy is from Bristol.
- He was part of the Bristol underground art scene.
- Banksy uses his art to voice his opinion on things that are happening in the world such as poverty, greed and war.

- Banksy uses stencils to create his artwork. He then uses spray paint on the stencil to create the graffiti.

- Graffiti is writing or drawings scribbled, scratched, or sprayed secretly on a wall or other surface in a public place.
- Some people believe this is vandalism.

Louise Bourgeois (1911-2010) Sculpture/3D - Spiders

- Louise Bourgeois was a weaver, sewer & designer.
- As a young girl, Bourgeois enjoyed being in her parents' busy tapestry studio, helping with dyeing cloth, weaving and sewing.
- Bourgeois would often draw designs for tapestry sections that needed to be repaired.
- Louise Bourgeois wanted her art to tell stories.
- Bourgeois started out as a painter, but when she moved to New York she started making sculpture.
- Some of her most famous sculptures that she created were called cells that she made in the 1990s.

Bourgeois loved spiders, and she made hundreds of drawings and sculptures of them throughout her career. She described the spider as an artist.

It could 'spin thread and create magnificent webs. It could also mend things. Remember, Bourgeois grew up in a place where there was spinning, weaving and repairing – her parents' tapestry workshop.
