Please use your own words to express your views about Banks Road:

- A distinguished and respected school where everyone is kind and cooperative. I only wish there was more attention given to new students who aren't fluent in English, as my daughter needs that. Otherwise, everything is excellent. 🌹
- My child has been with the school since September 2025, anything that has happened I've had conversations with her teacher, very well communicated either via dojo or at pick up. School always sends messages out in advance prior to events happening, important messages etc. My child is extremely happy at banks Road, loves going in of a morning and thoroughly enjoys her day each day. She's made lots of friends, doesn't feel left out through anything and always says 'my teacher teaches so wonderfully' she's content and she's formed a trusting relationship with her teacher which is nice to see, I feel I can go to her teacher with a lot of things and talk to her she offers support and advice and she listens, so I can see why my child is very attached to her.

- The team led by mr savage, mr wilson and miss gainey are excellent. i would definitely recommend this school for others to attend.
- Banksroad helped to recognise mys sons ASD leading to a diagnosis and have helped to settle him with his social anxiety
- My only complaint is for parents evening, if parents turn up late they should be made to wait until the very end. As waiting 20 minutes plus for an appointment is inconvenient
- Very happy all 3 of my children have attended and I wouldn't use any other school
- I strongly commend the school, the staffs are well grounded and principled. Keep it up
- If ever there was a problem with my child the teachers have addressed it soon as to avoid a bigger situation
- Very good school all staff are lovely, reception are lovely and the head teacher is great
- Lovely school never had any issues, Evelyn has thrived there from the start and her teachers have always done their best to support her
- Banks Road is an excellent school with an impeccable staff concerned with teaching not only math or English but mental health, health care, arts, music, sports, and has a wide range of after-school activities, providing experiences outside of school, in addition to being focused on the child's development and well-being. Arthur and my family had happy years with a lot of support at Banks Road. Thank you all.
- She loves this school and so happy with all staff
- Excellent school never had a problem and my children are very happy there
- Absolutey amazing school
- Fantastic school. Great supportive network. Really puts kids first.
- Amazing early years setting. Helpful and supportive staff.
- We have always loved the school and the teachers are all so friendly snd brilliant. However I think the current year 4 class need to be split into small classes to help concentrate on important years ahead , the class size is too big
- My children are extremely happy here at banksroad, I have never in the 8 years years my children have attended here had any real issues, any minor issues have been dealt with promptly and effectively, ensuring both I and my child are happy and at ease with any outcome. I would highly recommend banks road to any parent.
- i am happy that when we suggested the school has a problem with parking it was acted upon and now parking around school is safer. we need more people to walk to school.
