

Living in the Wider World

Diversity - Diversity means differences. People may be different in many ways, including race or ethnicity, age, disabilities, language, culture, appearance, or religion.

Discrimination - The unfair treatment of one particular person or a group of people

Prejudice- Judging someone or having an idea about them before you actually know anything about them

Inclusion - Being included or making to be part of something

Stereotype - A mistaken belief or idea many people have about a thing or a group that is based on their looks, which might be untrue or only slightly true

Media - The main way of communicating to lots of people at the same time such as television, advertising, print media and social media (online)

Social Media - Forms of electronic communication (as Web sites) through which people create online communities to share content (as information, personal messages, and videos)

Click bait - Online content designed to attract its desired audience to a particular site via a combination of sensational headlines and eye-catching images.

Society - A community or group of people having common traditions, institutions, and interests medieval society western society.

Tolerance - One of our British Values. It is when someone is willing to accept or respect what is different in others, especially their beliefs and customs.

Rule of Law - One of our British Values. A principle that everyone is equal before the law.

Individual liberty - One of our British Values. The right to believe, act and express oneself freely." Individual liberty suggests the free exercise of rights. It is the protection of your rights and the rights of others. ... Equality and Human Rights.

Economic wellbeing - having present and future financial security.

Gambling - When you risk money (or something of value) in a game or a bet in the hope of winning money or a prize