

Nando's

Year 5

SPRING Term

Take Away

Homework

Choose your homework from the menu below:

The Peri-ometer suggests the difficulty or challenge the homework may offer. Every half-term you should attempt to complete at least 4 tasks and this should include at least one 'HOT' and one 'EXTRA HOT' task.

Research Tudor buildings in our local area and create a 3D model using any materials of your choice.	Create a 3D model of the solar system using any materials of your choice.	Create a piece of artwork inspired by Alberto Giacometti.
Research music by our Spring term 'Musicians of the Month' Freddie Mercury, Beethoven and Nusrat Fateh Ali Khan write a review expressing your opinion.	It was difficult for Tim Peake to have a diet of fresh food in space. Research the food eaten by Tim and how he achieved a healthy diet.	Create a diagram of a how rivers change from source to mouth or the components of the water cycle.
Write a diary as a child in the Tudor era. Include their daily life, job roles and worries.	Produce a labelled diagram of a spacesuit, considering how to allow the astronaut to function well and survive in space.	Research Neil Armstrong and Buzz Aldrin and create a non-chronological report about them and their mission to the moon.
Create a timeline of the Tudor monarchs adding key information about their reign.	Create a poster (printed or drawn) to give children specific advice about how to keep safe when participating in internet gaming or when communicating with friends online.	Design a fact file about our artist we are studying for the Spring term - Alberto Giacometti.