Equality & Diversity Overview

	Assemblies	Cultural Event – Weekly Assembly for whole school focus as well as In depth by Year group	International Women's day	Awareness Days	LGBT+ History month February	Black history month October	School Visitors
Nursery		Chinese New Year (February)	The Queen	World Braille day School Sport Week – Water Awareness day	Embracing differences Families, families, families by Suzanne Lang Handa's Surprise – Eileen Brown Daddy, papa and me – Leslea Newman
Reception		Diwali Hinduism/Sikhism	Junko Tabei climbing Everest	World Braille day School Sport week Water Awareness day	Book – Mommy, Mama and me by Leslie Newman. Made by Raffi – Craig Pomranz	African drumming African art/weaving	Paralympian Athlete
YR1		Hanukkah Judaism	Jessica Watson sailor	World Braille day School Sport Week Water Awareness day	Book – 'And Tango makes 3' part of PSHE curriculum, by Justin Richardson	Rosa Parks – Montgomery bus/civil rights (history) Marcus Rashford Arthur Wharton	Paralympian Athlete
YR2		Passover (March/April) Judaism	Amelia Earhart – First female to fly across the Atlantic (history)	World Braille day School Sport Week Water Awareness day	Emmett and Caleb by Karen Hottois and Delphine Renon. Red: A crayons story by Michael Hall	Dr Mae Jemison astronaut	Paralympian Athlete
YR3		Holi – festival of colour Hinduism	Greta Thunberg eco	World Braille day School Sport Week	Julian is a mermaid by Jessica Love Jerome by heart by Thomas Scotto	Mary Seacole British/Jamaican nurse	Paralympian Athlete

				Water Awareness day
YR4		Ramadan Eid – celebrated at the end of Ramadan Islam	Emelinne Pankhurst The right to vote Malala Yousafzai Pakistani activist Nobel Peace Prize winner	World Braille day School Sport Week Water Awareness day	10,000 dresses by Marcus Ewert Summer term artist study – Sir Elton John.	Mary Jackson First black female engineer to work at NASA Katherine Johnson – NASA scientist	Paralympian Athlete
YR5		Mandela Day (July)	Ada Lovelace Day maths/computing programming	World Braille day School Sport Week Water Awareness day	Study of LGBT sports stars. Jess Fishlock, Tom Daley and Nicola Adams	Barack Obama Michele Obama	Paralympian Athlete
YR6		Martin Luther King Day (January)	Women's role in WW2	World Braille day School Sport Week Water Awareness day	Alan Turing	Ruby Bridges Jesse Owens - Sport	Paralympian Athlete

Equality & Diversity Subject Overview

	Art/DT	English	PE	History	Geography	Science	Computing	RE	Maths	Music	PSHE RSE
Nursery	Alison Lapper – mouth artist	Sophy Henn – Super Duper you. Celebrating all things different	Dragon Dance – Chinese New Year	Changes within living memory – looking at how they have changed / differences	Chinese New Year Hot / Cold places Africa / UK	Humans – looking at differences between children, eye colour, hair colour, height etc. and how this makes			World Maths Day Comparing everyone is different. Focus on height and using words such as taller / shorter and introduce shoe size etc. to talk	Listen to a wide range of musical styles that allows movement and response. Dance style music.	Making Relationships. Managing feelings and behaviour – understand and follow rules, between each other Family customs in the past Toys from different cultures	Christmas around the world	use all unique. Link to pattern seeking			about diversity and uniquness		working as part of a team. Understanding the world – people and communities, understanding about similarities and differences between themselves and others. Reading – listening to books from other cultures …talk about what they have heard. Expressive art and design Experiment with colours, design and textures from art/craft around the world.

Recep	Vincent van Gogh Pablo Picasso	Trish Cook – So Much. Crystal Swain-Bates - Big hair, don't care Access to a variety of books within the provision	Dragon Dance – Chinese New Year	Toys – past and present	Buildings from around the world Maps of the world	Humans – looking at differences between children, eye colour, hair colour, height etc. and how this makes use all unique. Link to pattern seeking	Internet safety day Keeping ourselves safe	Diwali Stories from the bible – Easter, Christmas, Creation Why do people of faith have special books Harvest	World Maths Day 14th March - comparing everyone is different. Focus on height and using words such as taller / shorter and introduce shoe size etc. to talk about diversity and uniqueness	John Williams: American film composer 1932-	Making Relationships. Managing feelings and behaviour – understand and follow rules, working as part of a team. Understanding the world – people and communities, understanding about similarities and differences between themselves and others. Reading – listening to books from other cultures …talk about what they have heard/read. Expressive art and design Experiment with colours, design and textures from art/craft around the world.

YR1	Anni Albers Textiles Peter Longstaff foot artist - Disability	Mwenye Hadithi African animal tales Beatrix Potter	Traditional English Folk Dance	Rosa Parks Florence Nightingale	Study of an area of UK different to their own.	Beatrix Potter Chris Packham	Internet safety day.	Judaism – Shabbatt Stories from the Jewish bible	World Maths Day 14th March will focus on Maths from around the world – use the story The World is not a Rectangle. Look at shapes in the world around them (Zaha Hadid)	Rahul Dev Burman Indian male 1939-1994 Bollywood film music	Autumn – families and friendships. Spring – Living in the wider world inc YR6 valuing diversity Summer – health & well-being inc YR5 personal identity: recognising individuality Medway resources Christopher Winter Project - RSE Rights & responsibilities
YR2	Andrew Highfold aboriginal art Mariusz Kedzierski (artist without arms)	Mary Hoffman Amazing Grace series Emily Gravett – female author	African Dance	Amelia Earhart	Study of non-European country.	Agnes Arber Botanist	Respecting differences and tolerance of other cultures and religions including online. Internet safety day.	Tolerance of different beliefs and religions. Judaism – Shabbatt Stories from the Jewish bible	World Maths Day 14th March will focus on Maths from around the world – use the book counting on Katherine	Dame Evelynne Glennie: Deaf percussionist and composer 1965-
YR3	Yoyoi Kusama Painting.	The Egyptian Cinderella: traditional tale retold by Shirley Climo	Indian Dance– Bollywood	Traditions and cultures of Ancient Egyptians	Katia Krafft - Geologist and Volcanologist	Mary Anning- Fossil hunter	Internet safety, password security and suitability of online gaming.	Islam – prophet Muhammed (PBUH)	World Maths Day 14th March will focus on Maths from around the world – counting	Pyotr Illyich Tchaikovsky: Russian composer 1840-93. Orchestral,

	Rembrandt pencil sketching. Josie local artist. Jamie Oliver – chef.	Ai-Ling Louie - Yeh-Shen: A Cinderella Story from China	Justin Fashanu			Marie Curie- Radiation		Judaism – Moses and the 10 commandments. Torah holy book.	in French. Idea that language is different but the number system is universal	romantic, ballet music.
YR4	Maurits Escher Dutch William Morris - British Leo Sewell - American Keith Salmon – registered blind	Mitch Johnson – Kick (based in Jakarta about hopes and dreams)	Russian Dance Marcus Rashford	Roman civilisation – difference in life / roles of the poor and the wealthy Romans within their civilisation. Ancient Greece – democracy.	Diversity – comparative study of UK and Russia	Sir Charles Kao – Chinese engineer (telecommunications)	Internet safety day. Respecting differences and tolerance of other cultures and religions including online.	Diversity and respect for different cultures and religions – Islam, Christianity, Judaism and cross religious viewpoints	World Maths Day 14th March will focus on Maths from around the world – Roman Numerals	Sir Elton John MBE: British pop artist/composer 1947- LGBT
YR5	Chris Ofili Paintings Swapna Augustine – foot artist	Author study -Malorie Blackman	Maori – Hakka Ellie Simmons	Early Islamic civilization- Mayan	Comparative study of Russia and North America.	Sir Isaac Newton Mae Jemison - Space	Ada Lovelace Day	How Muslim beliefs relate to Allah Forms of Hindu worship	World Maths Day 14th March will focus on Maths from around the world – Mayan number system	Nina Simone: American jazz and blues artist and composer 1933-2003
YR6	Annabelle Wanjiku Collage Lisa Fittipaldi – vision loss	Author Study – Holes, Shadow – refugees from Afghanistan Biographies, influential women – mutual respect	South American Dance – Samba Invasion Game – Kabaddi Gareth Thomas	WW2 – role of women Holocaust, persecution of Jews and other ethnic minorities including LGBT	Fair Trade De-forestation Native South Americans Trade distribution	Stephen Hawking Libby Hyman Santorio Santorio Dame Anne McLaren Luc Montangnier – blood	Alan Turing Digital footprint. Use of social media. Reality vs what is posted on social media including the need to show a range of different cultures and types of people	Tolerance of different cultures and religions Mutual respect – Hindu, Muslim and Christian beliefs are studied	World Maths Day will focus on Maths from around the world – Alan Turing Enigma Code WW2.	Charanga Unit - Music and Me. Inspirational women working in music. Shiva Feshareki: Eska Mtungwazi: Afrodeutsche: Anna Meredith: Pharrell Williams - Happy

						Inheritance and evolution focus on Charles Darwin					