

It's the Final Countdown!

Starting tomorrow, the 9th March you have a total of 33 school days left before your SATs tests but 63 days if you count weekends and school holidays. Therefore, during the next few weeks and the Easter holidays, we strongly recommend that you read daily, practise your times tables and use all of the key learning APPS, that we as a school have subscribed you to, to revise and visit key areas of your
