

Year 6 Foundation Subjects Transition Expectations

Science	RE	Computing	Geography
- Use scientific vocabulary and understanding when describing ideas, observations and understanding - Form a conclusion Independently which draws on evidence from the test - Be able to explain the key parts and functions of the human circulatory system	- Know and understand how different religions consider life as a journey - Use the right words to show understanding of three ways Muslim worship shows devotion to Allah and Christian worship shows devotion to God	- Use ICT to present information for specific purposes - Confidently explain a way of staying safe online including reporting SPAM and incidents - Write and amend more complex computer programs to create a variety of outcomes - Develop and refine digital content	- Describe and understand key aspects of human geography - Describe and understand key aspects of physical geography - Explain geographical changes and their causes
History	PE	Art	DT
- Relate current studies to Previous learning and make comparisons between different times in history - Recognise that the UK has a royal family that has Developed through time - Identify sources which are useful for particular tasks	- Suggest improvements about their own and others performances - Control and catch a ball whilst moving - Understand the basic rules of a net and a field game	- Compose images using grids, viewpoint and angles - Know the difference between vandalism and street art, analysing the social messages of modern murals - Form a three-dimensional memory structure	- Look at the form and function of different products - Create an individual or group product - Write a detailed criteria for a design and an evaluation

Music	MFL French	RSE/PSHE
• Create their own composition, record using staff notation and perform individually and as part of a group • Compose using interrelated dimensions of music, drawing on skills learnt over previous years	• Hold a simple conversation in French • Write more complex sentences • Understand short written texts and dialogues	• Know strategies for managing stress through rest and relaxation • Understand how to resolve complex relationship conflicts through proactive negotiation and compromise	