Friday 6th November

The Week at a Glance

Joining Crompton House Trust:

Thank you to all that attended our celebration assembly in church to welcome us into the Crompton House Trust. It was such a special celebration, and we are so excited to see what opportunities are still to come.

Children in Need:

On Friday 13th November, children are invited to come to school wearing their pyjamas or something spotty (and bring along their favorites teddy if they wish!) in return for a £1 donation to Children in Need.

We would also love to welcome parents and grandparents into the school hall after morning drop-off to enjoy tea or coffee and take part in a fun activity with your child. In return, we simply ask for a donation to Children in Need.

We look forward to seeing lots of spots, pyjamas and teddies, and hope you can join us to help support this wonderful cause!

What Are We Reading?

The Bog Baby

by Jeanne Willis

Mrs Welfare and Willows are enjoying reading The Bog Baby. The Bog Baby is a modern fairytale starring two rebellious sisters who feed their mother a little white lie so that they can go fishing at a magic pond in Bluebell Wood. Their hunt for newts proves unsuccessful, but all is not lost as they end up with something altogether more interesting – a Bog Baby. They take this magical creature home and, at first, all seems well. But then the Bog Baby becomes withdrawn and sad. Is it time to spill their secrets to mum and see if she can help save this magical creature.
