Key Questions

Who do I tell if I see anything online that makes me upset or scared?
When you are at school, you should tell the teacher or another adult. At home, you should tell your parent or guardian or another adult that you trust.
Why are passwords so important?
If you use a book or article written by someone else, then you must reference it, so people know where you got the information from. If you don't do this then it is known as plagiarism.
